

COMMUNIST LEADERS ARE FLEEING MUNICH

Advance of German Troops Causes Much Alarm and Heads of Government Are Departing.

HEADQUARTERS ARE MOVED

Council Shows Uneasiness and Makes New Location for Offices—Lack of Coal Is Serious.

By The Associated Press

BERLIN, Monday, April 30.—Communist leaders are fleeing from Munich as the situation there caused by the advance of Bavarian government troops becomes worse. According to reports, Herr Lanzler, minister of popular enlightenment, disappeared Sunday and was followed by Herr Fechenbach, former secretary of the late President Ebert. Both men were arrested at Ulm later in the day.

The military preparations of the communists, it is reported, are suffering from lack of coal. In order to keep a few trains running in the communist section of southern Bavaria, they are using wood. For heating in Munich they have cut down a number of the great trees.

The government has changed its headquarters from the Hofburg Haus to the German theater. The executive council is showing uneasiness and has shifted its meeting place from the former royal palace to the Krupp works, which is fortified. A revolutionary tribunal has replaced the regular courts. A new chief justice is said to be a man named Cronauer, who is said to have been imprisoned a number of times for itself.

The tentative program for Thursday includes an address of welcome by H. O. Glasser, state representative from Enid, response by G. A. Callahan, of Hot Springs, Ark.; reading of the minutes by E. B. Guthrie of Tulsa, secretary of the association; annual address by C. W. Avery of Tulsa; president's report of the association work for 1918 by the secretary; an address "National Highways" by George Belding, city manager of Hot Springs, Ark., an address "The $50,000,000 Bond Issue" by R. A. Singletary, manager of the Oklahoma Good Roads association; an address "Highway Construction" by E. L. Fahey, Coldwater, Kansas; an address "Oklahoma's Road Needs" by L. W. Moore of Alva.

Thin Ones Are Popular

HOLTON, Kan., April 30.—A popular game in rural circles in this vicinity is the "avordupole" party. The girls are weighed, their weights written on slips of paper. All the slips are put into a hat and the young men draw. He is allowed to take the girl he draws to supper, paying a half cent per pound for their meal.

See More Naval Flights.

LONDON, April 30.—"I would bet a thousand to one against the battle of Britain being the last naval engagement," Admiral Enid, commander of the grand fleet, told a representative of the Liverpool Echo. The reporter asked Sir David's opinion "as a navy man and a sportsman" and no, in his official capacity

TULSA DAILY WORLD, THURSDAY, MAY 1, 1919.

Claremore Race Meet to Start Saturday; Classy Horses Enter

SPECIAL IN THE WORLD

CLAREMORE, Okla., April 30.—With over 150 horses in training here for the annual Claremore race meet and at least that number in arrival today and tomorrow, all is in readiness for the opening of the Saturday meet in this oil city. Much interest has been evinced in the meet by both the lower and upper classes, numerous visitors having come to the meet to be received every day.

Those from all over this section are expected to attend the turf carnival, which is expected to be even more successful than that of last year.

There are to be five running races every day, starting promptly at 2 o'clock. This will enable Texans to attend the races and leave immediately following their grooms.

to all public officials, especially judges, to watch for packages which might be delivered to them and a guard was thrown around the county courthouse.

The addresses on the 16 packages served were all typewritten. The title and a couple of minor errors led of the packages to be identified.

EXPERTS CALLED IN

Experts were called by Inspector Clegg and one of the experts was appointed to maintain a
